The Hematology-Oncology team at Bryn Mawr Medical Specialists (BMMSA) is comprised of physicians who are board certified in Oncology, Hematology and Internal Medicine, oncology nurse specialists, lab and support staff. Our physicians care for patients with hematologic (blood) or oncologic (cancer) conditions. When necessary, our physicians admit patients to Bryn Mawr Hospital.

The Bryn Mawr Hospital and our practice provide a complete range of hematology and oncology services with a very “patient-oriented” philosophy.

John G. Devlin, M.D. is a graduate of St. Joseph’s University and Temple University School of Medicine. He completed his residency in Internal Medicine as well as a fellowship in both Hematology and Oncology at Temple University Hospital and Fox Chase Cancer Center. He joined BMMSA in July 2007.

Sameer Gupta, M.D., M.P.H. is a graduate of Maulana Azad Medical College and All India Institute of Medical Sciences in India, as well as the University of Alabama at Birmingham. He completed a residency in Internal Medicine at the State University of New York in Buffalo, and a fellowship in both Hematology and Medical Oncology at Temple University Hospital and Fox Chase Cancer Center. He is currently a Clinical Assistant Professor of Medicine at Jefferson Medical College. He joined BMMSA in 2011.

Molly S. Stumacher, M.D. is a graduate of Harvard University and Harvard Medical School. She completed her residence at Brigham and Women’s Hospital in Boston and a fellowship in both Hematology and Oncology at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine in Philadelphia. Prior to joining BMMSA, Dr. Stumacher practiced at Penn Hematology-Oncology of Chester County for 12 years. She joined BMMSA in July 2018.

Eric Fox, D.O. is a graduate of The George Washington University, Boston University School of Medicine, and the Touro College of Osteopathic Medicine. He completed his residency in Internal Medicine and his fellowship in Hematology/Oncology at Lankenau Medical Center. He joined BMMSA in 2023.

BMMSA's Hematology-Oncology physicians have contributed to the medical literature and are active in clinical research. The growing Bryn Mawr Hospital Cancer Program provides care for over 1,000 newly diagnosed patients annually, and here patients have access to clinical studies of all major National Cancer Institute clinical research groups, such as the Eastern Cooperative Oncology Group (ECOG-ACRIN), the Alliance Oncology group, NRG Oncology, Southwestern Oncology Group (SWOG), as well as other studies from independent companies or research consortiums.

Our office and treatment center is located in the Bryn Mawr Medial Arts Pavilion at 825 Old Lancaster Road, Suite 440, in Bryn Mawr (across from the Warden Lobby of the Bryn Mawr Hospital).

We may be reached by phone, day or night, at 610-525-4511. Our fax number is 610-525-8561. If you are a new patient, please complete the enclosed patient information form and bring it with you at the time of your initial consultation. We will obtain any pathology and radiology results from Bryn Mawr Hospital. However, we ask that you obtain relevant records, radiology and pathology reports and slides from any other hospitals and from other physicians and bring these with you at the time of your first visit (or have these faxed to us beforehand).

Relevant medical literature about your condition is available by brochure, pamphlet, etc. at our office.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
BRYN MAWR MEDICAL SPECIALISTS ASSOCIATION

Effective Date: August 22, 2013

Revised: October 11, 2024

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW TO GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, you may contact our Privacy Officer at:

Address: Bryn Mawr Medical Specialists Association

I. YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

Bryn Mawr Medical Specialists Association is required by the federal privacy rule to maintain the privacy of your health information that is protected by the rule, and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your protected health information. We are required to abide by the terms of the notice currently in effect. We are also required to notify you following a breach of your unsecured protected health information. Your medical and billing records at our practice are examples of information that usually will be regarded as your protected health information.

Generally speaking, your protected health information is any information that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition, the provision of health care to you, or payment for health care provided to you, and individually identifies you or reasonably can be used to identify you.

We have a duty to keep your protected health information confidential and secure and to only disclose the information when authorized by you or when the law allows disclosure without authorization

II. USES AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION WITHOUT YOUR AUTHORIZATION

A. Treatment, payment, and health care operations

This section describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes. The descriptions include examples. Not every possible use or disclosure for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes will be listed.

Treatment

We may use your protected health information for our treatment purposes as well as the treatment purposes of other health care providers. Treatment includes the provision, coordination, or management of health care services to you by one or more health care providers. Some examples of treatment uses and disclosures include:

- We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students and other trainees, or other personnel who are involved in your care at our office.
- We may share medical information about you in order to coordinate the different services you need, such as prescriptions, lab work, and x-rays.
- We may disclose medical information about you to people outside of our office who may be involved in your medical care, such as other physicians, family members, or other health care related entities, such as skilled nursing facilities with whom you seek treatment.
- We may use a patient sign-in sheet in the waiting area which is accessible to all patients.
- We may page patients in the waiting room when it is time for them to go to an examining room.
- We may contact you to provide appointment reminders.

Payment

We may use your protected health information for our payment purposes as well as the payment purposes of other health care providers and health plans so that the treatment and services you receive may be billed and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company, or a third party. Some examples of payment uses and disclosures include:

- Sharing information with your health insurer to determine whether you are eligible for coverage or whether a proposed treatment is a covered service.
- We may need to give your health insurance company information about a procedure you received so you health insurance company will pay us or reimburse you for the procedure. This may include submission of a claim form.
- Providing supplemental information to your health insurer so that your health insurer can obtain reimbursement from another health plan under a coordination of benefits clause in your subscriber agreement.
- We may also disclose your medical information to other healthcare providers so that they can bill for health care services that they provided to you, such as ambulance services.
- Mailing you bills in envelopes with our practice name and return address.
- Provision of a bill to a family member or other person designated as responsible for payment for services rendered to you.
- Providing information to a collection agency or an attorney for purposes of securing payment of a delinquent account.

Health care operations

We may use your protected health information for our health care operation purposes, as well as certain health care operation purposes of other health care providers and health plans. Some examples of health care operation purposes include:

- We may use medical information to review our treatment and services and to evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you.
- We may use and disclose medical information about you for various quality assurance and quality improvement activities.
- Population-based activities relating to improving health or reducing health care costs.
- Health care fraud and abuse detection and compliance programs.
- Conducting other medical review, legal services, and auditing functions.
- Sharing information regarding patients and turning over patient records to entities that have purchased our entity.
- Other business management and general administrative activities, such as compliance with the federal privacy rule and resolution of patient grievances.

B. Other uses and disclosures not requiring authorization

We may use your protected health information for other purposes:

- Family members or close friends involved in your care or payment for your treatment.
- In a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified of your condition and location.
- A government disaster relief agency if you are involved in a disaster relief effort.
- To inform you of treatment alternatives, or benefits or services related to your health. If we receive anything of value for making these communications, we will notify you of this fact, and you will have an opportunity to opt out of future communications.
- As required by law.
- Public health activities, including disease prevention, injury or disability, reporting of births and deaths, reporting child abuse or neglect, reporting reactions to medications or product problems, notification of recalls, infectious disease control, notifying government authorities of suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence (if you agree or as requited by law).
- Health oversight activities (e.g. audits, inspections, investigations, and licensure activities),
- Lawsuits and disputes (e.g. as required by court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena or other legal process).
- Law enforcement (e.g. in response to legal process or as required or allowed by law).
- Coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors.
- Organ and tissue donation organizations.
- Certain research projects, as approved by an Institutional Review Board, or if certain conditions are met.
- To prevent a serious threat to public health or safety.

- To military authorities if you are a member of the armed forces.
- National security and intelligence agencies.
- Protection of the President or other authorized persons or foreign heads of state, or to conduct special investigations.
- Inmates or others in custody of a correctional institution or law enforcement.
- Workers' Compensation (in compliance with applicable laws).
- To Business Associates (individuals or entities that perform functions on our behalf, provided they agree to safeguard the information).
- We may incidentally disclose protected health information as a byproduct of an otherwise permitted use or disclosure. For example, other patients may overhear your name being paged in the waiting room.
- We may disclose proof of immunization to a school for admission with oral or written agreement from a parent/guardian, or other person acting in loco parentis, or directly from the individual if an adult or emancipated minor.

C. Uses and disclosures with authorization

All other purposes that do not fall under a category listed above will require your written authorization to use or disclose your protected health information. We will not use or disclose psychotherapy notes, use or disclose your health information for marketing purposes, without a signed authorization. You may revoke your authorization, and thereby stop any future uses and disclosures, by notifying us in writing.

III. PATIENT PRIVACY RIGHTS

You have the following rights regarding your medical records. Please contact our Privacy Officer to exercise your rights.

A. Right to privacy

You have a right to privacy for your protected health information. As noted above, we have a duty to protect your health information and only use it in accordance with HIPPA. We can only disclosure your health information to those persons or entities you authorize or as permitted by law.

B. Right to request restriction

You may request limitations on how we use or disclose your medical information for health care treatment, payment, or operations (e.g. you may ask us not to disclose that you have had a particular surgery). We are not required to agree with your request, except for requests to restrict disclosures to a health plan for purposes of payment or health care operations when you have paid in full out-of-pocket for the item covered by the request, and when the disclosure is not requited by law. If we agree, we will comply with your request, unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment.

C. Right to confidential communications

You may request communications in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you might request that we only contact you by mail or at work. We will accommodate reasonable requests for confidential communications, but you must specify how or where you wish to be contacted, and how payment will be handled.

D. Right to accounting of disclosures

You may request a list of instances where we have disclosed your medical information for certain types of disclosures. The accounting will not include disclosures that we are not required to record, such as disclosures pursuant to an authorization. This right is limited to disclosures within 6 years of the request. The first accounting you request within a 12-month period is free, but we will charge a fee for any additional lists requested within the same 12-month period.

E. Right to inspect and copy

You have a right to look at and obtain a copy of your medical records, billing records, and other records used to make decisions about your care. We may charge you a fee for our postage and labor costs and supplies to create a copy. If your information is stored electronically and you request an electronic copy, we will provide it to you in a readable electronic form and format.

F. Right to request amendment

If you believe that the medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you have the right to request that your records be amended. Under limited circumstances, we may deny your request for amendment. If denied, you will receive an explanation for the decision and information explaining your options.

G. Right to copy of privacy notice

You may request a paper copy of this Notice at any time by contacting our Privacy Officer. You may also obtain an electronic copy of this Notice on our website. The Notice will be provided to you in other formats if you require special accommodations by contacting our Privacy Officer.

H. Right to notification of breach

We are required by law to notify affected individuals following a breach of unsecured medical information. A breach is generally defined as any disclosure of unsecured protected health information not permitted by this Notice. Examples of exceptions include unintentional access by employees and inadvertent disclosures within an office.

IV. CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We reserve the right to change this notice at any time. We further reserve the right to make any new provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain at the time of change, including information that we created or received prior to the effective date of the change. We will post a copy of our current Notice in our waiting room and also on our website. At any time, patients may review the current notice or request a paper copy by contacting our Privacy Officer.

V. COMPLAINTS

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with our Privacy Officer, or with the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. You will not be penalized or retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint.

I understand that I have received a recommendation for treatment for my medical condition from my physician. I also understand that sometimes an insurer, including mine, may not pay for treatment, even when recommended by my physician. The physicians at BMMSA cannot predict with certainty whether my insurer will pay for this treatment. BMMSA may have a contact with my insurer that precludes BMMSA from billing and collecting payment from me for services that my insurer refuses to pay unless I agree beforehand that I will pay for such treatment. I hereby do agree to pay for the above therapy and related costs if my insurer will not.

Financial Policy

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to our offices and assure you that we will do our utmost to provide you with the best possible care.

Patients with Insurance Coverage

We will be glad to help you obtain the appropriate benefit from your insurance carrier. It is your responsibility to read and understand your insurance agreement; certain services may or may not be covered, depending on your individual policy. Please provide current insurance information to the office, including any changes in coverage. If your insurance requires a form, please provide one to the office. We will bill your insurance carrier as a courtesy to you. However, you are ultimately responsible for the payment of the bill.

Portions of the bill may not be paid by the insurance company, and are to be paid by the patient. For example, a co-payment may be required by you as per your insurance agreement. If you are having treatment over a period of time, we appreciate payment during the course of treatment. Our Business Office will gladly assist you in arranging a payment plan. If you are unable or unwilling to accept responsibility for your account balance, please be advised that your account may be forwarded to a collection agency, which will adversely affect your credit.

If you have a High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP), please notify the office prior to your visit. If you have not met your deductible, we will bill you directly for any balance due. Please note, the office may request payment up front.

If you are covered through an out-of-state insurance plan, it is your responsibility to contact your carrier and determine if our physicians participate with your plan. Please note that these types of plans typically carry high out-of-pocket expenses.

Patients without Insurance Coverage

Patients without insurance coverage are requested to pay for services as rendered. We accept MasterCard and Visa payments.

I have read and understand the Financial Policy of Bryn Mawr Medical Specialists Association.
